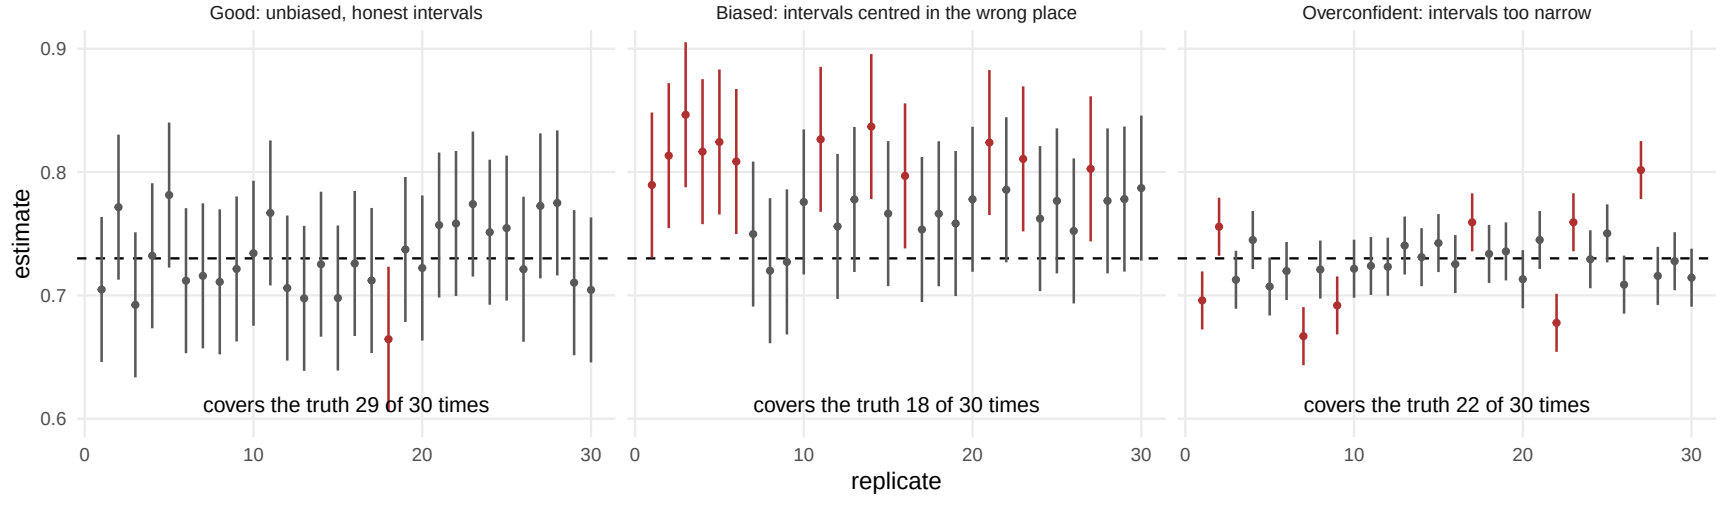
Toy illustration: 30 replicates of one estimand, three ways an estimator can behave


Dashed line = the truth (here 0.73, the APOE4 time ratio). Each vertical bar is one replicate's 95% interval; red bars miss the truth.
Numbers are invented to illustrate the ideas; they are not output of the model.